Before Rudolphs, "bar-b-que joints" were called "joints" for a very good reason. They served tasty ribs, but were dingy smoke-filled dives. James (Jimmy) Theros changed all that on June 20, 1975, when he opened Rudolphs Bar-B-Que on the corner of Lyndale & Franklin in south Minneapolis. Not only did Rudolphs serve award-winning, tantalizingly tasty, savory ribs, but the restaurant itself was fun yet classy, with a touch of the burlesque.

Why is this emporium of epicurean delights called "Rudolphs?" Because Rudolph Valentino (our namesake) was considered the greatest sex symbol in the silent picture era. When this movie star tragically died in 1926 at the age of 31, more than 80,000 fans showed up at his funeral to pay their final respects — and the ceremony almost turned into a riot. By naming our restaurant after Rudolph, we continue to pay homage to his impressive prowess.

Rudolphs Bar-B-Que has undergone several updates since 1975. The Marlene Dietrich Room was added in 1980 to accommodate our many patrons.

In '94, the festive Island Bar was created. A few years ago, the bathrooms and exterior were extensively renovated, plus the Oasis Room was added.

One thing that hasn't changed over the years is our taste-tempting foods. Our cole slaw, ribs, bar-b-que sauce and marinade recipes remain the same since Jimmy introduced them in 1975. It's why our loyal customers keep coming back for more and it's why we have won countless awards over the decades (including national awards for "best ribs," "best sauce," and "best bar-b-que" at the prestigious Cleveland Rib Cook-Off in 1983 & 1985).

The Theros Family appreciates your patronage and extends a hearty welcome to you and your party. As Rudolph Valentino was famous for saying... well... actually, he didn't say much. He was a silent movie star.
